

SUCCESS OF HISTORI.

HOW THE AMERICAN PEOPLE APPRECIATE TALENT. On the 18th of May Madame Ristori will leave the United States for her native country. She made her debut here on the 30th of September, 1866, and since that time she has performed one hundred and sixty-eight nights, in the following places:—

Table with columns: City, Performances, City, Performances. Lists cities like New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans, Mobile, Louisville with their respective performance counts.

112 cities (representations) 168. The plays produced have been Medea, Mary Stuart, Eschylus, Phaedra, Macbeth, Adrienne Lecouvreur, Pia di Tormei, Deborah, Camma, Angelo (Tyant of Padua), and Myrrha. Mary Stuart, forty-one times; Eschylus, Queen of England, fifty-two times.

The gross receipts will amount to nearly $450,000; Government tax, $90,000; Ristori's share, $270,000, which after deducting expenses of her company and personal expenses, may be calculated to leave her net proceeds $200,000.

In every city where Ristori has performed the most brilliant offers are made, and the request to terms, for her reappearance; but, as her stay is limited and her departure fixed, all applications have to be declined.

In cities like Albany, Troy, Utica, Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Cleveland, Pitts-burgh, and Detroit, where managers guaranteed nightly from $2000 to $2500 net, free of all expenses, managers have gained from $1000 to $1800 each representation.

The most curious fact is that the last six representations were given in Holy Week, when amusements generally are almost suspended. They were as profitable as any nights, and produced equal enthusiasm, and the same managers are incessant in their applications for more representations.

The original contract was signed at Verona in September, 1865, by M. Grau, for one hundred and twenty representations, to be given in the United States and Havana; but there has not been time found to leave the United States, or even to visit many cities of this country.

Mme Ristori has performed from five to six times each week since September, besides traveling about eighteen thousand miles. With the exception of New Orleans and Mobile, no Southern city could be visited, and Havana had to be deferred till the next season.

Ristori was rich before coming to this country. She owns No. 48 Boulevard Malesherbes, a splendid chalet, which was completed before she left for America, at a cost of 2,000,000 francs. She owns, also, a splendid chateau in Paris, and a splendid chateau in Russia.
